Recovery Coaches

Would you like the support of a dynamic environment to revitalize your coaching, exchange ideas on how to grow your business, and move you into mastery?

Now forming:

Mentor Group for certified coaches who are already Recovery Coaches or who want to expand into the world of Recovery Coaching.

As a qualified Recovery Coach, it has become apparent to me that there is a gap in the coaching community: unlike therapists, we do not have available to us the resource of on-going supervision - unless we enroll in advanced levels of training or work privately with a mentor coach. And there is even less support available in the growing field of Recovery Coaching.

Lack of on-going supervision can make us feel isolated, allow us to develop habitual ways of working, and we can lose our "edge". Meeting on a regular basis with our peers and an experienced mentor can revitalize our coaching, provide a dynamic environment in which to exchange ideas on how to grow our businesses, and move us into mastery.

The group will:

- Address specific client issues
- Provide support and guidance as you market and build a thriving business
- Teach specific Recovery Coaching Skills
- Provide an opportunity for peer coaching
- Introduce tools to enhance self-care and eliminate stress
- Offer new tools to grow your competency as a coach

It includes:

- Two phone meetings a month
(2nd and 4th Wednesdays, 7:00 - 8:15 pm PT)
- One individual phone session a month
- Training towards becoming an affiliate of Linda Landon & Associates
