Toltec Pilgrimage to Teotihuacan, Mexico

March 14 - 19, 2007

We invite you to join us for a very special pilgrimage to the ancient Toltec pyramid city of Teotihuacan (near Mexico City), Mexico, to release the habits, beliefs, and attachments that make our lives so small, and keep us from the happiness that is our birthright. Each of us was born into this world with an amazing capacity to feel joy in the simple act of being alive. We were curious, playful, creative, and filled with wonder. It is this innate capacity that is at the heart of living authentically, and together, we will recover that gift.

Hotel Villa Arqueologica

Empowered by the energies of this sacred place, the ceremonies and wisdom teachings of the ancient Toltec masters, and the fellowship we offer each other, we will begin to transform our own lives into a masterpiece of art. With each step, we will rediscover a greater capacity to release our doubts and fears, and make choices to live with awareness, playfulness, loving-kindness, and confidence.

The spiritual power of the ancient Toltec civilization still courses through every stone of these temples, waiting for us to draw upon their wisdom.

With honest eyes, open hearts and all the power of our will, we re-claim the gift of life.

Cost: $1,095. Includes fully escorted journey, transfers from/to Mexico City Airport, 5 nights/ 6 days accommodations, entrance fees, teachings, ceremonies, and farewell dinner.

Your guides, Hunter Flournoy and Linda Landon, teachers in the Toltec eagle knight lineage of don Miguel Ruiz, have committed their lives to this artistry, and to supporting others in their own acts of creation.
